

Telco Customer Churn — Executive Dashboard

Total Customers

Active telecom subscriber base

7043

Total Revenue

Total Revenue from all customers

11.85M

Retention Rate

5,220 Stayed Customer

74.1%

Churn Rate

1,823 customers lost

25.9%

Annualized Revenue Lost

From churned customers alone

1.62M

Customer Churn Overview

Churn Rate by Customer Lifecycle Stage

Lifecycle Insights

Churn Risk Declines with Customer Tenure

Churn decreases from 45.9% among new customers (0-12m) to just 3.2% among loyal customers (49-72m), 14x lower churn rate among loyal customers.

Key Executive Insights

New customers (0–12 months) account for 63.1% of all churned customers.

Early customer tenure represents the highest churn exposure and should be closely monitored.

Customer Churn Profile

Who are the customers most represents in the churned customer population?s

Churn Label Senior Citizen Tenure Group Family Status

Key Customer Churn Insights

1-Churn is Concentrated Among Non-Senior Customers

Non-senior customers account for 1,418 of 1,823 churned customer(77.8%),representing the largest share of churn volume.

2-Early-Tenure Customers Represents the Largest Churn Segment for 911churned customers (50.0% of total churn making early customer lifecycle a critical retention window.

3-Customer Volume Is Concentrated Among Customer Without Dependents

Customers classified as Alone and With Partner Only represents the 2 largest family groups among churned customers, with 333 and 309 churned customers, respectively.

Senior Citizen

- ☐ Non-Senior
- ☐ Senior

Customer Churn Drivers

Churn Rate by Payment Method

Churn Rate by Household Engagement

Churn Rate by Contract Type

Service Adoption vs Churn Rate

Additional Internet Services	Churn Rate
1	32.6%
2	29.6%
3	27.9%
4	23.9%
5	22.0%
Total	28.4%

Payment Method

Household Engagement

Contract Type

Service Adoption

Electronic Check customers have the highest churn; automatic payments drive stronger retention.

Lower household engagement is associated with higher churn.

Long-term contracts substantially reduce churn risk.

Broader service adoption strengthens customer retention.

Retention Strategy

Highest Risk Segment
First-Year Customers 63.1% of churn occurs within the first year.

New (0-12m)

Highest Risk Contract
Highest churn among all contract types.

Month-to-month

Highest Payment Risk
Highest payment-related churn rate.

Electronic check

Strategic Opportunity
Service Bundling More adopted services → lower churn.

Expand Service Bundles

Data-Driven Retention Strategy
priority	Business Action	Reason
Critical	Protect first-year customers	Largest churn segment
Critical	Promote long-term contracts	Strongest behavioral driver
Medium	Launch loyalty campaigns	Improve retention

Expected Business Impact
Initiative	Expected Impact
First-Year Program	Lower early churn
Long-Term Contracts	Higher retention
Service Bundles	Higher customer engagement

Executive Summary
Summary
✔ Increase Autopay adoption to reduce payment friction
✔ Focus retention efforts on the first year of the customer lifecycle.
✔ Expand bundled services to strengthen customer engagement

Business Priority
Initiative	Priority
Contract Migration	Critical
First-Year Retention	Critical
Payment Optimization	High